E X A M P L E.

First, at 5d. 3q. the Pound, what is the great Hundred? Look in the Table for 5d. 3q. in the first Column (being the Bottom Line but one) and against it in the second, you shall find 2l. 13s. 8d. and so much will 112 Pounds cost. Again, if a hundred Weight cost 4l. 8s. 8d. find 4l. 8s. 8d. and against it, in the Column towards the left Hand, there you shall find 9d. 2q. and so much it is by the Pound.

Note, For every Farthing that one Pound doth cost, reckon Two Shillings and Four Pence, and that is the Price of the great Hundred.

EXAMPLES to explain the Use of the foregoing TABLES of VALUATION.

E X A M P L E I.

If one pound of tea costs 6s. 7d. 3f. What will 200 pounds come to? Answer, 66l. 9s. 2d.

Look first for the column with 6s. at the top, and then (under the first column of the page) for 200; direct your eye from thence to the opposite sum under the column of 6s. and you will find it 60l. then go backwards to the column which has 7d. at the top, and look for 200 on the column of the page; 200 seven pences you will find is 5l. 16s. 8d. to this add 60 three farthings, which is 12s. 6d. and the whole amounts to 66l. 9s. 2d. Thus,

200lb. of tea, at 6s. per lb.	—	—	—	60	0	0
200lb. of ditto, at 7d. per lb.	—	—	—	5	16	8
200lb. of ditto, at 3 farthings	—	—	—	0	12	6

E X A M P L E II.

What does 5 cwt. 3 qrs. of tobacco amount to at 10d. $\frac{1}{2}$ per lb.

Look for the column with 10d. at the top, and then for the sum opposite 112, in the first column, which is 14l. 13s. 4d. to this add the 2 farthings, which is 4s. 2d. Multiply their sums by 5, and the product will be the sum of 500. In the same manner proceed afterwards to find the amount of 3 qrs. or 84lb. and the product of the whole will be 28l. 3s. 6d. Thus,

1 cwt. or 112lb. at 10d. 2 f. per lb. will come to	—	—	—	4	18	0
Which multiplied by	—	—	—	—	—	5
The amount of 5 cwt. will be	—	—	—	24	10	0
84lb. or 3qrs. will amount to	—	—	—	3	13	6
The total amount of 5 cwt. 3 qrs.	—	—	—	28	3	6

In 659 farthings, how many shillings are contained?

Look for 200 in the first column of the Table of one farthing, page 124, and observe, that the next opposite sum is 4s. 2d. which, multiplied by 3, makes 12s. 6d. This done, look for the sum opposite to 50; and, at last, to that against 9; all which sums, added, shew, that in 659 farthings are contained 13s. 8d. 3f.

300 farthings make	—	—	—	—	0	6	3	0
Multiplied by	—	—	—	—	—	—	2	—
600 farthings make	—	—	—	—	0	12	6	0
50 farthings	—	—	—	—	0	1	0	2
9 farthings	—	—	—	—	0	0	2	1
659 farthings amount to	—	—	—	—	0	13	8	3

The same explained :

The first numbers shew the number of years purchase the annuity is supposed to be bought at; and the following figures shew the years and days the annuity must be received, to reimburse the first cost. See the following example.

E X A M P L E.

Supposing that a person gives $12\frac{1}{2}$ years purchase for an annuity, for life, and would know how many years this annuity must be received, to reimburse the charge of buying, supposing that money will yield but 4 per cent. per annum interest.

To resolve this question, you must look in the first row of the figures for $12\frac{1}{2}$ years purchase; then look for the number upon the line even with the said $12\frac{1}{2}$, it being the answer, viz. 17 years 246 days; and in 17 years 246 days the buyer must receive the annuity to be reimbursed his principal and interest.

Find your Sum under the Word Principal, and in the same Line you have the Interest for 1, 3, 6 Months, and a Year.

If you cannot find your Principal or Time at one View, enter the Table as often as is needful; so the Interest of 15l. for One Year Eight Months is 1l. 5s.

EXAMPLE, for the above Table.

What's the Value of an Annuity of 20l. a Year for the Life of a Person of 45, worth in ready Money, Interest at 5 per Cent?

Against 45. the Age, stands

9,95

Multiply by the Annuity

20

Answer in ready Money

£. 199,00 viz. 199l.

To

To calculate the Value of an Annuity for a single Life, or for Lives, at 4 per Cent.

The following Calculations shew, at the above Rate of Interest, how long an Annuity must be received, to take in the Value of the Purchase Money, according to the following Rates of Buying.

Years Purchase.	Years.	Days.	Years Purchase.	Years.	Days.
1	1	15	11	14	268
$1\frac{1}{2}$	1	211	$11\frac{1}{2}$	15	259
2	2	46	12	16	246
$2\frac{1}{2}$	2	251	$12\frac{1}{2}$	17	246
3	3	95	13	18	261
$3\frac{1}{2}$	3	309	$13\frac{1}{2}$	19	292
4	4	163	14	20	340
$4\frac{1}{2}$	5	22	$14\frac{1}{2}$	22	43
5	5	252	15	23	132
$5\frac{1}{2}$	6	122	$15\frac{1}{2}$	24	245
6	6	364	16	26	18
$6\frac{1}{2}$	7	247	$16\frac{1}{2}$	27	185
7	8	137	17	29	19
$7\frac{1}{2}$	9	34	$17\frac{1}{2}$	30	255
8	9	304	18	32	167
$8\frac{1}{2}$	10	217	$18\frac{1}{2}$	34	126
9	11	138	19	36	141
$9\frac{1}{2}$	12	69	$19\frac{1}{2}$	38	221
10	13	9	20	41	13
$10\frac{1}{2}$	13	324

The same explained.

The first numbers shew the number of years purchase the Annuity is supposed to be bought at; and the following figures shew the years and days the Annuity must be received, to reimburse the first cost. See the following example.

E X A M P L E.

Supposing that a person gives $12\frac{1}{2}$ years purchase for an Annuity, for life, and would know how many years this Annuity must be received, to reimburse the charge of buying, supposing that money will yield but 4 per cent. per annum interest.

To resolve this question, you must look in the first row of the figures for the $12\frac{1}{2}$ years purchase; then look for the number upon the line even with the said $12\frac{1}{2}$, it being the answer, viz. 17 years 246 days: and 17 years 246 days the buyer must receive the Annuity to be reimbursed the charge of the cost.

Method

Method of recovering Persons apparently drowned.

THE following method of recovering persons apparently drowned has been found so very successful, that I would recommend to every one, who shall be about persons who have met with such unhappy accidents, to try it. Let the drowned person be stripped naked, and laid before a good fire; and then, after being well rolled about, let him be thoroughly rubbed with salt, and covered therewith. Many, that have seemed dead, and some that have lain under water above half an hour, have been brought to life again, and perfectly recovered by this method.

Regulations relative to the Postage of Letters in Great Britain.

After the 31st of August, 1784.

ALL Letters and Packets, to and from Places, not exceeding one Post-Stage, within Great Britain, shall pay, in Addition to the present Rate of Postage, single 1d. double 2d. treble 3d. and the Ounce 4d.

Letters and Packets above one, and not exceeding two Post-Stages, within England, shall pay in Addition, single 1d. and so in Proportion.

Letters and Packets above two Post-Stages, and not exceeding 80 Miles, within England, shall pay in Addition, single 1d. and so in Proportion.

Letters and Packets above 80, and not exceeding 150 Miles, within England, shall pay in Addition, single 1d. and so in Proportion.

Letters and Packets above 150 Miles, within England, shall pay in Addition, single 2d. and so in Proportion.

Letters and Packets to or from the General Post-Office in London, to or from the City of Edinburgh, Dumfries, and Cockburnspeth, shall pay in Addition, single 1d. and so in Proportion.

Letters and Packets above one Post-Stage, and not exceeding 50 Miles, within Scotland, shall pay in Addition, single 1d. and so in Proportion.

Letters and Packets above 50, and not exceeding 80 Miles, within Scotland, shall pay in Addition, single 1d. and so in Proportion.

Letters and Packets above 80, and not exceeding 150 Miles, within Scotland, shall pay in Addition, single 1d. and so in Proportion.

Letters and Packets above 150 Miles, within Scotland, shall pay in Addition, single 2d. and so in Proportion.

No Letter or Packet to or from Glasgow, or the intermediate Places by Carlisle, not passing through London, shall pay an higher Rate than if sent through Edinburgh to or from Glasgow, and that no Letter or Packet sent to or from Edinburgh, or any intermediate Place in England and Scotland, North of London, shall pay an higher Rate than 7d. for a single Letter, and so in Proportion.

No Letter or Packet, together with its Contents, shall be taxed at an higher Rate than as a treble Letter, unless it shall weigh an Ounce, when it shall be rated as four single Letters; and every Quarter of an Ounce above that Weight shall be charged as a single Letter.

No Letter or Packet sent by Post, within Great Britain, directed by any Member of either House of Parliament, shall be exempted from the Duty of Postage, unless the whole Supercription thereof shall be of the Hand-Writing of the Member, and shall have indorsed thereon, in the same Hand-Writing, the Name of the Member, Post-Town from whence the same is to be sent, and the Day, Month, and Year, when put into the Post-Office, the Day of the Month to be in Words at length; and unless every such Letter and Packet shall be put into the General or other Post Office, or into a Receiving-House, on the Day of the Date, put upon such Letter or Packet: and no Letter or Packet directed to any such Member shall be exempted from the Duty of Postage, unless such as shall, during the Sitting of Parliament, or within forty Days before or forty Days alter any Summons or Prorogations thereof, be directed to any such Member, at the Place where he shall actually be at the Time of the Delivery thereof, or at his usual Place

Place of Residence in London, or at the House, or Lobby of the House of Parliament, of which he is a Member.

All Persons who, by Virtue of their Offices, send and receive Letters and Packets free of Postage, shall send and receive them free, in the Manner, and under such Restrictions, as any Member of Parliament.

If any Person shall forge or counterfeit the Hand-Writing of any Person whatsoever, in the Supercription of any Letter or Packet, in order to avoid the Payment of Postage, or shall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or procure to be done, the Date upon Supercriptions, or shall write, and send by Post, or cause to be done, any Letter or Packet, the Supercription or Cover whereof shall be forged or counterfeited, or the Date thereon altered, in order to avoid the Duty of Postage, knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, every Person so offending, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall be transported for seven Years.

Regulations relative to the Postage of Letters between Great Britain and Ireland.

After the First of August, 1787.

ALL Letters and Packets are to be charged and paid for according to the present Rates of Postage in Great Britain, and the Rates established by the Act of Parliament in Ireland, except to and from certain Persons who, by Virtue of their respective Offices in Great Britain and Ireland, now send and receive Letters and Packets free from the Duty of Postage, provided that all such Letters or Packets so sent shall relate to the Business of their respective Offices, and that there shall be certified on the Outside of such Letters and Packets, under the Hand-Writing of such Officers respectively to be "On his Majesty's Service," and that such Letters and Packets shall be sealed with the Seal of the Office, or Officer sending the same. And in case any such Officers shall receive under Cover to them any Letters or Packets intended for or directed to other Persons, all such Officers are required to send the same to the General Post-Office in London, or Dublin, in order that such Letters and Packets may be charged with the Duty of Postage; it being the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, that the Privilege of sending and receiving Letters and Packets by such Officers, shall extend to such Letters and Packets only, as relate to the Business of their respective Offices.

All Persons may send printed Votes, Proceedings in Parliament and printed Newspapers to and from Great Britain and Ireland, at the Rate of one Penny only for each printed Vote, Proceeding in Parliament, and each printed Newspaper, in Covers open at both Ends, to be paid when they are put into any Post Office in Great Britain; but the Penny need not be paid before hand upon Papers from Ireland, as it can be received on their Delivery in Great Britain.

His Majesty's Postmaster-General may authorize certain Persons to send and receive printed Votes, Proceedings in Parliament, and printed Newspapers by the Post by and from Great Britain and Ireland, at the Rate of one Penny only for each printed Vote, and Proceeding in Parliament, and each printed Newspaper, over and above the printed Price thereon.

All Persons therefore who wish to be supplied with Newspapers for Ireland, or from Ireland for Great Britain, may have them regularly sent, by applying by Letter, or otherwise, to the Clerk of the Chester Road, at the General Post-Office in London, or to the Postmaster of any Town in Great Britain, where a Newspaper is printed; or to the Secretary of the General Post-Office in Dublin.

The Price of a Paper six Times a Week, at 3d. each, with 1d. for the Postage, will be 5l. 4s. per Annum; an Evening Paper three Times a Week, 2l. 12s. per Annum, and so in Proportion for the London Gazettes, other Papers, &c. And by an Act passed in the last Session of the Parliament of Ireland, each British Newspaper, &c. will in all Parts of Ireland be delivered at the Rate of 1d. Postage for each; all which, upon an Average, will be less than the Prices heretofore paid for Newspapers furnished by the Public Offices in Great Britain and Ireland.

There is not a more mistaken Idea, than that which has been so industriously circulated, and believed, of the rapid and enormous Fortunes made by the Company's Servants in Bengal. This list is warranted to be accurate, and it proves, that of 508 civil Servants, appointed in the last twenty-two years, thirty-seven only have returned to this country, 150 are gone, from whence they never can return; and according to every probable Calculation, not thirty-seven, of the 321 now in Bengal, will return in the next ten Years, with Fortunes acquired in India—of the 37 who have returned, not a Man has brought home an enormous Fortune, many of them less than Twenty Thousand Pounds, some of them not a Shilling, nor has one Fortune been rapidly acquired, and of the whole Number, two only are Members of the House.
